William B. Silver's Obituary

This obituary was taken from a newspaper clipping. There is no date or newspaper identification information, except for an advertisement on the back of the clipping for a jeweler and optician located in Eaton, Ohio. The obituary is recreated below.

SILVERS _William B. Silvers was born in New Jersey, February 14, 1808 and died at Kansas City, Kansas, December 11, 1893. He was married to Ann Johnson, Sept. 30, 1835, who still survives him.

Most of his long life was passed in Preble county on his farm near Sugar Valley, where he lived for more than forty years. Seven years ago he and his wife removed to Kansas City to make their home with their youngest daughter. Mr. Silvers was of the religious order of Friends of the Hicksite branch to which denomination he was greatly attached. His funeral took place Wednesday Dec. 13th at two o'clock, and was conducted by Dr. J.W. Alderman of Washington Ave. M. E. Church, the interment was at Oak Gove cemetery, at Kansas City, Kansas.

We knew Mr. Silvers long and well when he resided in this county and take pleasure in testifying to his many virtues. In all life's varied relations he was an exemplary citizen, kind, generous, active and enterprising, esteemed by all his may acquaintances, who unite with his relatives in sorrow for his departure from earthly life.-ED.
